Purpose and Summary

H.R. 3506, introduced by Rep. Kevin Kiley (R-CA), makes technical amendments to update statutory references to certain provisions classified to title 7, title 20, and title 43 of the United States Code, and to correct related technical errors. The amendments are required because the provisions were reclassified editorially to improve the organization of the provisions in the Code. In the course of updating statutory references, the Office of the Law Revision Counsel found related technical errors. The bill also makes amendments to correct those errors.

Background and Need for the Legislation

The Committee on the Judiciary has jurisdiction over the “[r]evision and codification of the statutes of the United States.”¹ The Committee is assisted in this responsibility by the Office of the Law Revision Counsel (OLRC), an office of the House of Representatives tasked with “develop[ing] and keep[ing] current an official and positive codification of the laws of the United States.”² OLRC fulfills this purpose by submitting, as necessary, bills to the Committee to add to, revise, or reclassify portions of the United States Code.

In November 2016, part C of title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (Public Law 89–329), which had been set out in the United States Code at 42 U.S.C. 2751 et seq., was editorially transferred to appear at 20 U.S.C. 1087–51 et seq. Part C of title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965 originally had been enacted as part C of title I of the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964 and set out within chapter 34 of title 42 of the Code, along with the rest of that Act. Subsequently, Public Law 90–575 transferred part C of title I of the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964 to become part C of title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965, but the location in the Code of the affected provisions was not changed. The editorial transfer was made in November 2016 in order to bring the structure of the Code into logical correspondence with the structure of the Higher Education Act of 1965 in title 20 of the Code and to simplify references to the Act. No statutory text was altered.

In July 2017, two chapters containing miscellaneous provisions, located in two different titles of the United States code, were editorially reorganized. The chapters are chapter 17 (“Miscellaneous Matters”) of title 7, United States Code, and chapter 28 (“Miscellaneous Provisions Relating to Public Lands”) of title 43, United States Code. No statutory text was altered in this reorganization. The provisions were merely transferred from one place to another in the Code, primarily to other locations in title 7 and title 43, respectively.

The changes described above were necessary to improve the organizational structure of the material in the United States Code. The Office of the Law Revision Counsel has prepared the bill and submitted it to the Committee on the Judiciary as part of the Office’s ongoing responsibility under section 285b of title 2, United States Code, to maintain the United States Code and assist the Committee in the revision and codification of federal statutes.

Hearings

For the purposes of clause 3(c)(6)(A) of House rule XIII, the Committee states that no hearings were held to assist in the formulation of H.R. 3506.

¹House Rule X(1)(l), 118th Cong.
²2 U.S.C. § 285a.

Committee Consideration

On May 24, 2023, the Committee met in open session and ordered the bill, H.R. 3506, favorably reported by voice vote, a quorum being present.

Committee Votes

In compliance with clause 3(b) of House rule XIII, the Committee states that no recorded votes were taken during consideration of H.R. 3506.

Committee Oversight Findings

In compliance with clause 3(c)(1) of House rule XIII, the Committee advises that the findings and recommendations of the Committee, based on oversight activities under clause 2(b)(1) of rule X of the Rules of the House of Representatives, are incorporated in the descriptive portions of this report.

New Budget Authority and Tax Expenditures

Clause 3(c)(2) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives does not apply where a cost estimate and comparison prepared by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office under section 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 has been timely submitted prior to filing of the report and is included in the report. Such a cost estimate is included in this report.

Congressional Budget Office Cost Estimate

With respect to the requirement of clause 3(c)(3) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives and section 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, the Committee has received the enclosed cost estimate for H.R. 3506 from the Director of the Congressional Budget Office:

Technical Corrections Legislation
As ordered reported by the House Committee on the Judiciary on May 24, 2023
By Fiscal Year, Millions of Dollars	2023	2023-2028	2023-2033
Direct Spending (Outlays)	0	0	0
Revenues	0	0	0
Increase or Decrease (-) in the Deficit	0	0	0
Spending Subject to Appropriation (Outlays)	0	0	0
Increases net direct spending in any of the four consecutive 10-year periods beginning in 2034?	No	Statutory pay-as-you-go procedures apply?	No
Increases on-budget deficits in any of the four consecutive 10-year periods beginning in 2034?	No	Mandate Effects
		Contains intergovernmental mandate?	No
		Contains private-sector mandate?	No

The table above applies to each bill separately, as described below.

On May 24, 2023, the House Committee on the Judiciary ordered reported the following bills that would make technical changes to the United States Code:

- H.R. 3496, a bill to make technical amendments to update statutory references to certain provisions which were formerly classified to chapters 14 and 19 of title 25, United States Code, and to correct related technical errors;
- H.R. 3506, a bill to make technical amendments to update statutory references to certain provisions classified to title 7, title 20, and title 43, United States Code, and to correct related technical errors;
- H.R. 3571, a bill to make technical amendments to update statutory references to certain provisions classified to title 2, United States Code, title 50, United States Code, and title 52, United States Code, and to correct related technical errors; and
- H.R. 3578, a bill to make technical amendments to update statutory references to provisions reclassified to title 34, United States Code, and to correct related technical errors.

Because the bills would update statutory references, correct errors, and make other nonsubstantive changes to original laws, CBO estimates that enacting the bills would have no effect on the federal budget.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Jon Sperl. The estimate was reviewed by H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Director of Budget Analysis.

PHILLIP L. SWAGEL,
Director, Congressional Budget Office.

Committee Estimate of Budgetary Effects

With respect to the requirements of clause 3(d)(1) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee adopts as its own the cost estimate prepared by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office pursuant to section 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974.

Duplication of Federal Programs

Pursuant to clause 3(c)(5) of House rule XIII, no provision of H.R. 3506 establishes or reauthorizes a program of the federal government known to be duplicative of another federal program.

Performance Goals and Objectives

The Committee states that pursuant to clause 3(c)(4) of House rule XIII, H.R. 3506 would make technical amendments to update statutory references to certain provisions classified to title 7, title 20, and title 43 of the United States Code, and to correct related technical errors.

Advisory on Earmarks

In accordance with clause 9 of House rule XXI, H.R. 3506 does not contain any congressional earmarks, limited tax benefits, or limited tariff benefits as defined in clauses 9(d), 9(e), or 9(f) of House rule XXI.

Federal Mandates Statement

The Committee adopts as its own the estimate of federal mandates prepared by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office pursuant to section 423 of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act.

Advisory Committee Statement

No advisory committees within the meaning of section 5(b) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act were created by this legislation.

Applicability to Legislative Branch

The Committee finds that the legislation does not relate to the terms and conditions of employment or access to public services or accommodations within the meaning of section 102(b)(3) of the Congressional Accountability Act (Pub. L. 104-1).
