

Public Law 102-403
102d Congress

An Act

Oct. 9, 1992
[H.R. 3379]

To amend section 594 of title 5, United States Code, relating to the authorities of the Administrative Conference.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 594 of title 5, United States Code, is amended—

(1) in paragraph (3) by striking “and” after the semicolon;

(2) by amending paragraph (4) to read as follows:

“(4) enter into arrangements with any administrative agency or major organizational unit within an administrative agency pursuant to which the Conference performs any of the functions described in this section; and”;

(3) by adding at the end the following:

“(5) provide assistance in response to requests relating to the improvement of administrative procedure in foreign countries, subject to the concurrence of the Secretary of State, the Administrator of the Agency for International Development, or the Director of the United States Information Agency, as appropriate, except that—

“(A) such assistance shall be limited to the analysis of issues relating to administrative procedure, the provision of training of foreign officials in administrative procedure, and the design or improvement of administrative procedure, where the expertise of members of the Conference is indicated; and

“(B) such assistance may only be undertaken on a fully reimbursable basis, including all direct and indirect administrative costs.”.

Approved October 9, 1992.
