AN ACT

To provide for the relief of certain members and former members of the Department of the Navy for the expenses of temporary storage of household effects.

April 8, 1960
[H. R. 8106]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That (a) notwithstanding any law, all payments made for services rendered before April 17, 1954, for the temporary storage of the household effects of members of the Navy, which were temporarily stored in commercial facilities after April 20, 1949, under the provisions of Executive Order 10053 or of the Joint Travel Regulations of the uniformed services, whether paid directly or as reimbursement to the member, are validated to the extent that they were paid.

Navy.
Household effects, storage payments.

3 CFR, 1949-1953 Comp., p.242.

(b) Any member or former member of the Navy or his legal representative, who, directly or by set-off, has repaid the United States for an amount paid by it for services rendered after April 20, 1949, but before April 17, 1954, for the temporary storage of his household effects in commercial facilities, is entitled to be paid the amount involved, if otherwise proper, from the account to which the repayment was credited, or if that account is not available, from appropriations available for the refund of any amounts erroneously collected.

SEC. 2. In the audit and settlement of accounts of disbursing and certifying officers, full credit shall be given for amounts for which liability is relieved under this Act.

Approved April 8, 1960.
