Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That (a) in addition to its existing authority, the Securities and Exchange Commission, hereinafter referred to as the "Commission", shall have the authority to delegate, by published order or rule, any of its functions to a division of the Commission, an individual Commissioner, a hearing examiner, or an employee or employee board, including functions with respect to hearing, determining, ordering, certifying, reporting, or otherwise acting as to any work, business, or matter: Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall be deemed to supersede the provisions of section 7(a) of the Administrative Procedure Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 241), as amended: And provided further, That nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize the delegation of the function of rulemaking as defined in the Administrative Procedure Act of 1946, as amended, with reference to general rules as distinguished from rules of particular applicability, or of the making of any rule, regulation, or order pursuant to section 19(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

(b) With respect to the delegation of any of its functions, as provided in subsection (a) of this section, the Commission shall retain a discretionary right to review the action of any such division of the Commission, individual Commissioner, hearing examiner, employee, or employee board, upon its own initiative or upon petition of a party to or an intervenor in such action, within such time and in such manner as the Commission shall by rule prescribe: Provided, however, That the vote of one member of the Commission shall be sufficient to bring any such action before the Commission for review: And provided further, That in the event action at a delegated level (1) denies any request for action pursuant to section 8(a) or section 8(c) of the Securities Act of 1933 or the first sentence of section 12(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; (2) suspends, denies, or revokes a broker-dealer registration pursuant to section 15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; (3) suspends, denies, or withdraws any registration or suspends or expels a member of a national securities exchange pursuant to section 19(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; or (4) suspends trading on an exchange pursuant to section 19(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, a person or party adversely affected by such action shall be entitled to review by the Commission.

(c) Should the right to exercise such review be declined, or should no such review be sought within the time stated in the rules promulgated by the Commission, then the action of any such division of the Commission, individual Commissioner, hearing examiner, employee, or employee board, shall, for all purposes, including appeal or review thereof, be deemed the action of the Commission.

SEC. 2. In addition to the functions transferred by the provisions of Reorganization Plan Numbered 10 of 1950 (64 Stat. 1265), there are hereby transferred from the Commission to the Chairman of the Commission the functions of the Commission with respect to the assignment of Commission personnel, including Commissioners, to perform such functions as may have been delegated by the Commission to Commission personnel, including Commissioners, pursuant to section 1.
