Tariff treatment.
79 Stat. 949.
19 USC 1202.

(b) The amendments made by subsection (a) shall apply with respect to articles entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after the date of the enactment of this Act. Upon request therefor filed with the customs officer concerned on or before the 120th day after the date of the enactment of this Act, the entry or withdrawal of any article—

(1) which was made after August 30, 1963, and before the date of the enactment of this Act, and

(2) with respect to which the amount of duty would be smaller if the amendments made by subsection (a) applied to such entry or withdrawal, shall, notwithstanding the provisions of section 514 of the Tariff Act of 1930 or any other provision of law, be liquidated or reliquidated as though such entry or withdrawal had been made on the date of the enactment of this Act.

46 Stat. 734.
19 USC 1514.

SEC. 2. (a) The headnotes of schedule 7, part 7, subpart A of the Tariff Schedules of the United States are amended by adding at the end thereof the following new headnote:

77A Stat. 379.
19 USC 1202.

"4. Buttons (whether finished or not finished) provided for in item 745.32 which are the product of an insular possession of the United States outside the customs territory of the United States and which are manufactured or produced from button blanks or unfinished buttons which were the product of any foreign country shall be subject to duty under item 745.32 at the rate which applies to products of such foreign country."

(b) Paragraph (a) of general headnote 3 of the Tariff Schedules of the United States is amended by striking out "Articles" in subparagraph (i) and inserting in lieu thereof "Except as provided in headnote 4 of schedule 7, part 7, subpart A, articles".

77A Stat. 11;
Ante, p. 1521.

(c) The amendments made by subsections (a) and (b) shall apply with respect to articles entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption after the 120th day after the date of the enactment of this Act.

SEC. 3. (a) Schedule 8, part 4 of the Tariff Schedules of the United States is amended by inserting after item 851.10 the following new item:

“ 851.15	Letters, numbers, and other symbols; number cards and other arithmetical materials; printed matter; blocks and other dimensional shapes; geometrical figures, plane or solid; geographical globes; tuned bells and basic materials for understanding music; model articles and figures of animate objects; puzzles and games; flags; dressing frames; dummy clocks; bottles, boxes, and other containers or holders; all the foregoing, whether or not in sets, fabricated to specification and designed for the classroom instruction of children; and containers or holders fabricated to specification and designed for the storage of such instructional articles when not in use.....	Free	The column 2 rate applicable in the absence of this item ”
----------	--	------	--

(b) The amendment made by subsection (a) shall apply with respect to articles entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after the date of the enactment of this Act.

Duty-free entries.

SEC. 4. (a) The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to admit the following articles free of duty:

- (1) one Weissenberg rheogoniometer imported for the use of the Case Institute of Technology,
- (2) one mass spectrometer imported for the use of the University of Nebraska,
- (3) one mass spectrometer imported for the use of Utah State University,
- (4) one mass spectrometer imported for the use of the University of Hawaii, and
- (5) one Weissenberg rheogoniometer imported for the use of the University of Utah.

The Secretary of the Treasury shall also admit free of duty all equipment, parts, accessories, and appurtenances for the articles enumerated in the preceding sentence which accompany such articles and are imported for the use of the respective institutions.

(b) Upon request therefor filed with the customs officer concerned on or before the 120th day after the date of the enactment of this Act, the entry or withdrawal of any article described in subsection (a) which was made before the date of the enactment of this Act shall, notwithstanding the provisions of section 514 of the Tariff Act of 1930 or any other provision of law, be liquidated or reliquidated in accordance with the provisions of subsection (a).

46 Stat. 734.
19 USC 1514.

SEC. 5. (a) The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to admit free of duty any article which is entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after June 8, 1962, solely for use at the International Peace Garden, Dunseith, North Dakota, and which is the gift to the International Peace Garden of a citizen or resident of Canada, of a Canadian corporation or organization, or of the Government of Canada or of any Province or political subdivision thereof.

(b) Upon request therefor filed with the customs officer concerned on or before the 120th day after the date of the enactment of this Act, the entry or withdrawal of any article described in subsection (a) which was made before the date of the enactment of this Act shall, notwithstanding the provisions of section 514 of the Tariff Act of 1930 or any other provision of law, be liquidated or reliquidated in accordance with the provisions of subsection (a).

(c) If, within 5 years after the entry of any article admitted free of duty under subsection (a), such article is used within the United States at any place other than the International Peace Garden, is transferred by the International Peace Garden to any person other than the donor of such article, or is sold by it to any person, the International Peace Garden shall promptly notify customs officers at the port of entry and shall be liable for the payment of duty on such article in an amount determined on the basis of its condition as imported and the rate applicable to it when entered (determined without regard to subsection (a)).

Public Law 89-807

AN ACT

November 11, 1966
[S.2770]

To amend title 18 of the United States Code so as to prohibit the use of likenesses of the great seal of the United States falsely to indicate Federal agency, sponsorship, or approval.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That (a) chapter 33 of title 18, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

Great seal of United States. Use of likenesses prohibited.

“§ 713. Use of the great seal of the United States

“Whoever knowingly displays any printed or other likeness of the great seal of the United States, or any facsimile thereof, in, or in connection with, any advertisement, circular, book, pamphlet, or other publication, play, motion picture, telecast, or other production for the purpose of conveying and in a manner reasonably calculated to convey the false impression that all or any part of such advertisement, circular, book, pamphlet, or other publication, play, motion picture, telecast, or other production, is sponsored or approved by the Government of the United States, or any department, agency, or instrumentality thereof, shall be fined not more than $250 or imprisoned not more than six months, or both.”

(b) The analysis of chapter 33 of title 18, United States Code, immediately preceding section 701 of such title is amended by adding at the end thereof:

“713. Use of likenesses of the great seal of the United States.”
