To amend section 1866 of title 28, United States Code, prescribing the manner in which summonses for jury duty may be served.

Federal jurors.
Duty, service
of summons.
82 Stat. 58.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 1866(b) of title 28, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

"When the court orders a grand or petit jury to be drawn, the clerk or jury commission or their duly designated deputies shall issue summonses for the required number of jurors.

"Each person drawn for jury service may be served personally, or by registered or certified mail addressed to such person at his usual residence or business address.

"If such service is made personally, the summons shall be delivered by the clerk or the jury commission or their duly designated deputies to the marshal who shall make such service.

"If such service is made by registered or certified mail, the summons may be served by the clerk or jury commission or their duly designated deputies who shall make affidavit of service and shall file with such affidavit the addressee's receipt for the registered or certified summons. If such service is made by the marshal, he shall attach to his return the addressee's receipt for the registered or certified mail."
