VARIABLE HOUSING ALLOWANCE

SEC. 4. (a)(1) Section 403(a) of title 37, United States Code, relating to basic allowance for quarters, is amended—

(A) by inserting "(1)" after "(a)"; and

(B) by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(2)(A) A member of a uniformed service entitled to basic allowance for quarters is entitled to a variable housing allowance under this paragraph whenever assigned to duty in an area of the United States (other than Alaska or Hawaii) which is a high housing cost area with respect to such member. A member with dependents who is assigned to an unaccompanied tour of duty outside the United States is entitled to a variable housing allowance while serving such tour of duty for any period during which the member's dependents reside in an area of the United States which would qualify the member to receive a variable housing allowance under this paragraph if assigned to duty in that area.

"(B) The monthly amount of a variable housing allowance under this paragraph for any member is the difference between (i) the average monthly cost of housing in that area for members of the uniformed services serving in the same pay grade as that member (as determined under regulations prescribed under subsection (j) of this section), and (ii) 115 percent of the amount of the basic allowance for quarters to which that member is entitled.

"(C) For the purposes of this paragraph, an area shall be considered to be a high housing cost area with respect to a member of a uniformed service whenever the average monthly cost of housing in that area for members serving in the same pay grade as that member (as determined under regulations prescribed under subsection (j) of this section) exceeds 115 percent of the amount of the basic allowance for quarters of that member."

(2) The heading of section 403 of such title is amended to read as follows:

37 USC 403.

"§ 403. Basic allowance for quarters; variable housing allowance".

(3) The item relating to such section in the table of sections at the beginning of chapter 7 of such title is amended to read as follows: "403. Basic allowance for quarters; variable housing allowance."

(b) Paragraph (2) of section 403(a) of title 37, United States Code, as added by subsection (a), shall take effect on September 30, 1981.

Effective date.
37 USC 403
note.
37 USC 403
note.

(c)(1) During fiscal year 1981, a member of a uniformed service entitled to basic allowance for quarters under section 403 of title 37, United States Code, may be paid a variable housing allowance under this subsection whenever assigned to duty in an area of the United States (other than Alaska or Hawaii) which is a high housing cost area with respect to such member. A member with dependents who is assigned to an unaccompanied tour of duty outside the United States may be paid a variable housing allowance under this subsection while serving such tour of duty for any period during which the member's dependents reside in an area of the United States which would qualify the member to receive a variable housing allowance under this subsection if assigned to duty in that area.

(2) The monthly amount of a variable housing allowance under this subsection for any member may not exceed the difference between (A) the average monthly cost of housing in that area for members of the uniformed services serving in the same pay grade as that member (as determined under regulations prescribed under paragraph (4)), and (B) 115 percent of the amount of the basic allowance for quarters to which that member is entitled.

(3) For the purposes of this subsection, an area shall be considered to be a high housing cost area with respect to a member of a uniformed service whenever the average monthly cost of housing in that area for members serving in the same pay grade as that member (as determined under regulations prescribed under paragraph (4)) exceeds 115 percent of the amount of the basic allowance for quarters of that member.

Regulations.

(4) Regulations shall be prescribed for the administration of this subsection in the same manner that regulations are prescribed under subsection (j) of section 403 of title 37, United States Code, for the administration of such section.

TRAVEL AND TRANSPORTATION ALLOWANCES

SEC. 5. (a) Section 404(d) of title 37, United States Code, relating to travel and transportation allowances, is amended—

(1) by striking out “that is not more than 7 cents a mile” in clause (1) and inserting in lieu thereof “per mile prescribed by the Secretaries concerned and”; and

(2) by striking out “of not more than 10 cents a mile” in clause (3) and inserting in lieu thereof “at a rate per mile prescribed by the Secretaries concerned and”.

37 USC 411.

(b) Section 411(b) of such title, relating to travel and transportation allowances, is amended—

(1) by striking out “first-class transportation, including sleeping accommodations,” in clause (1) and inserting in lieu thereof “common carrier transportation”;

(2) by inserting “and designating areas as high cost areas” after “rates” in clause (2); and

(3) by striking out “first-class transportation” and all that follows in clause (3) and inserting in lieu thereof “transportation and current economic data on the cost of subsistence, including lodging and other necessary incidental expenses relating thereto, when prescribing mileage allowances.”

Effective date.

note.

(c) The amendments made by this section shall be effective with respect to travel and transportation performed after August 31, 1980.

STABILIZATION OF PAY AND ALLOWANCES OF COMMISSIONED OFFICERS WHO PREVIOUSLY SERVED AS ENLISTED MEMBERS OR WARRANT OFFICERS

SEC. 6. (a)(1) Section 907 of title 37, United States Code, relating to the pay and allowances of enlisted members appointed as officers, is amended to read as follows:

“§ 907. Enlisted members and warrant officers appointed as officers: pay and allowances stabilized

“(a) An enlisted member who accepts an appointment as an officer shall, for service as an officer, be paid the greater of—

“(1) the pay and allowances to which he is entitled as an officer;

or

“(2) the pay and allowances to which he would be entitled if he were in the last enlisted grade he held before his appointment as an officer.

“(b) A warrant officer who accepts an appointment as a commissioned officer in a pay grade above W-4 shall, for service as such a commissioned officer, be paid the greater of—

“(1) the pay and allowances to which he is entitled as such a commissioned officer;

“(2) the pay and allowances to which he would be entitled if he were in the last warrant officer grade he held before his appointment as such a commissioned officer; or

“(3) in the case of an officer who was formerly an enlisted member, the pay and allowances to which he would be entitled if he were in the last enlisted grade he held before his appointment as an officer.

“(c) For the purposes of this section—

“(1) the pay and allowances of a grade formerly held by an officer include—

“(A) subject to subsection (d) of this section, special and incentive pays under chapter 5 of this title; and

“(B) subject to subsection (e) of this section, allowances under chapter 7 of this title; and

“(2) the rates of pay and allowances of a grade which an officer formerly held are those to which the officer would have been entitled had he remained in that grade and continued to receive the increases in pay and allowances authorized for that grade, as otherwise provided in this title.

“(d) In determining the amount of the pay and allowances of a grade formerly held by an officer, incentive pay for hazardous duty under section 301 of this title, special pay for diving duty under section 304 of this title, for duty at certain places under section 305 of this title, and for sea duty under section 305a of this title, and proficiency pay under section 307 of this title may be considered only so long as the officer continues to perform the duty creating the entitlement to or eligibility for that pay and would otherwise be eligible to receive that pay in his former grade.

37 USC 301.
37 USC 304.
37 USC 305a, ante, p. 1124.
37 USC 307.

“(e) The clothing allowance under section 418 of this title may not be considered in determining the amount of the pay and allowances of a grade formerly held by an officer if the officer is entitled to a uniform allowance under section 415 of this title.”

37 USC 418.
37 USC 415.

(2) The table of sections at the beginning of chapter 17 of such title is amended by striking out the item relating to section 907 and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

37 USC 907.

“907. Enlisted members and warrant officers appointed as officers: pay and allowances stabilized.”

(b) Section 203 of such title, relating to rates of pay for members of the uniformed services, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

37 USC 203.

“(d) The basic pay of commissioned officers who are in pay grades O-1, O-2, and O-3 and who are credited with over four years' active service as warrant officers shall be computed in the same manner as the basic pay of commissioned officers in the same pay grades who have been credited with over four years' active service as enlisted members.”

(c) The amendments made by this section shall be effective with respect to periods for which pay and allowances are payable which begin after August 31, 1980.

Effective date.
